

FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES

This person greets us when we come home from school.

This person makes our meals.

This person helps us do our homework.

This person gives us hugs and kisses when we get hurt.

This person teaches us how to make our bed.

This person calls us for family prayer.

This person makes sure we read our scriptures as a family every day.

This person locks our doors at night.

This person gives us blessings when we are sick.

This person holds the priesthood.

This person goes to work every day so we can have food and clothing.

This person teaches me about the gospel.

This person obeys his parents.

This person sets the table.

This person picks up toys.

This person honors her parents.

This person doesn't fight with her sister.

This person asks if he can help with anything.

This person does chores without complaining.

This person makes sure I have clean clothes to wear.

This person teaches us right from wrong.

This person tucks us in at night.

This person listens to my problems.

This person clears her plate.

This person cleans our house.

This person goes grocery shopping so we have food to eat.

This person gets up and going in the morning without mom asking.

This person respects mom and dad.

This person loves us.